Student fatally hit boarding school bus

A middle-school student waiting to board a school bus in Wisconsin was struck and killed Friday by a pickup truck that failed to slow down in time, authorities said.

The Sauk County Sheriff's Office said the student at Webb Middle School in Reedsburg was fatally injured about 7:20 a.m. along Highway 23/33 in the Town of Excelsior, northwest of Madison.

The sheriff's office said a Reedsburg school bus had stopped to pick up the student on the highway's north side when the pickup's driver failed to slow down in time and sideswiped the bus, striking the student, who was pronounced dead at the scene.

The sheriff's office said the pickup ended up in a roadside ditch. No one on the school bus was hurt, while the pickup's driver suffered minor injuries, authorities said.

Dear Mr. Phillips,

On or about March 10th, 2023, you had a conversation with a city hall staff member regarding a complaint you wanted to make against an officer that told you "Merry Christmas" sometime earlier—presumably in December 2022. Information about your complaint was forwarded to command staff in the police department. Lt. Garland reviewed the circumstances surrounding the contact you are referencing (determined to have occurred on 12-9-22), conducted a full investigation, and provided a summary of the above to me for final review.

After consideration of your complaint and the review conducted by Lt. Garland, I do not find any policy or procedure violation regarding the officer's statement to you, and have concluded that no additional action is warranted in this case. I have therefore determined that your complaint about officer conduct does not constitute a policy or procedure violation and is unfounded.

Sincerely,

B. Kruelle

By Nick Ferraro

A St. Paul man was sentenced Friday to nearly nine years in prison for driving high on cocaine and crashing his speeding SUV into a pediatric and palliative care doctor who was on his way to work, killing the 40-year-old husband and father of three young children in Arden Hills in 2021.

Norman Darnell Toney, 36, had pleaded guilty in Ramsey County District Court to criminal vehicular homicide, gross negligence, in connection with the Nov. 9, 2021, crash that killed Daniel Schnobrich, who was remembered Friday in court as a man dedicated to his family and to his profession.

Schnobrich had just left his Arden Hills home to work a night shift at M Health Fairview University of Minnesota Medical Center. Schnobrich took night shifts so he could spend his days with his kids, who were ages 4, 6 and 7 at the time of the crash, his father, Jeffrey Schnobrich, said in court.

"Dan was going to be sure he was there for his kids," he said. "Except, now he's gone."

Toney's SUV plowed into Schnobrich's Toyota Camry at such a high speed that his seat belt broke and he was ejected from his car. Schnobrich died less than five hours later.

"It is amazing Dan sur-

"Predictable is preventable," Ostby said before handing down Toney's prison sentence.

"This tragic accident is not an accident," she said. "It didn't have to happen."
